

Dear Colleagues,

Moscow, July 6, 2006 - Today lawyers of Paul Klebnikov's family have filed a complaint with Vyacheslav Lebedev, Chairman of the Russian Supreme Court, against the Moscow Municipal Court, which has failed to provide the court record of the trial following the announcement of the verdict on May 6, 2006, and has not forwarded appeals to the Supreme Court of the Russian Federation.

Numerous requests by attorneys to the chairman of the Moscow Municipal Court over the past two months have not put an end to the bureaucratic delays in the Paul Klebnikov murder case.

We will be glad to respond to any of your questions regarding this matter.
